

MT. NEBO'S CURRENT EVENTS:

RELIGION & FAMILY

Participating in Mt. Nebo's black history program were (from left) Rev. John Walthall of Inspirational Baptist Church, Pastor Cedric Brock and Deacon Alan Crawford Sr., Mt. Nebo's youth adviser.

SUN.
Feb 20, 2000
4 p.m

Black
History Program

Mt. Nebo members celebrate black history

Youth take lead in church's annual program

Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church held its annual black history program Sunday. And, as usual, the youth of the church took charge of the program.

About 15 of Mt. Nebo's youth presented a skit during the Sunday afternoon service. The skit, "Out of The History Comes," featured the youth dressed as famous black historical figures, including Harriet Tubman, Dr. Charles Drew and Rosa Parks. The youth told of the contributions each figure made to society and recited famous quotes from some of them.

Working with the youth to present the skit was Mt. Nebo's new youth adviser, Deacon Alan Crawford Sr.

The church is expanding its youth program, thanks to the recent completion of its new educational building.

Guest speaker for the program was Rev. John Walthall, pastor of Inspirational Baptist Church.

Mt. Nebo Pastor Cedric Brock encourages the community to tune in to 95.7 FM every Sunday at 8:30 a.m. for his Sunday message.

Mount Nebo to honor leaders in community

A group of local leaders will be recognized for their service to the community at 11 a.m. tomorrow in Mount Nebo Missionary Baptist Church, 831 North Detroit Ave.

Among those to be honored are the Rev. W.L. Barnes, former pastor of True Vine Baptist Church, and funeral directors Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Casey Jones, Dorothy Day, Cheryl Riggs-Dale, Bobby Tate, and Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Harden.

Also being recognized are church members Mardis Newsom, wife of the late Rev. L.H. Newsom; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams;

MT. NEBO HONORS Church members
AND COMMUNITY LEADERS
SUN MARCH 26, 2000